ARTIST OF THE MONTH: CAROL HARRIS

Carol says:

"I love Colored Pencils because of the adaptability of the medium. Colored Pencil art can fool the eye into thinking the final product is a photograph, an acrylic, a watercolor or an oil painting. Throughout the years I have learned many aspects of pushing pencil around on a variety of papers and creating a range of subject matter. However, I have found that single objects are my favorites to draw. This allows the detail to be presented and viewed up close. Also, the artist becomes familiar with the aspects of the minute particles of each subject. My special place to create is in my tiny studio with French singer Edith Piaf playing loudly in the background and two dogs at my feet. Life is good."
