Don't forget to stop by the Keizer Civic Center (located at 930 Chemawa Rd. NE, Keizer, next door to the old school house building where KAA is housed) during the month of October to see the award winners from our September "Colors of Autumn". It was a great show and the award winners are part of what was submitted. The Keizer Art Association gallery wall is at the north entrance to the Keizer Civic Center and just inside the double doors. You won't be disappointed! This show is brought to you by Terry Dempsey, KAA board member.

WE NEED YOU!!”

WE need YOU! Have you thought about hosting in the Keizer Art Association (KAA) Gallery? Since the extended closure of the Keizer Cultural Center due to the Covid-19 Pandemic, we have had several of our regular hosts leave our fold due to one reason or another. The KAA Gallery and Classroom are open and we need Gallery Hosts.

- Hosts need to be a KAA member
- Gallery hours are Tuesday – Friday, 1 pm – 4 pm, Saturday, 10 am – 4 pm (Saturday shifts are 10 am – 1 pm and 1 pm – 4 pm)
- Currently our need is for hosts for the Thursday – Saturday shifts
- New hosts will need to shadow an experienced host at least twice before hosting alone in the gallery
- Artist hosts are encouraged to bring their materials or work in progress to work on during their shift. Visitors like to see artists at work and it is four hours of almost uninterrupted work time

Does this work for YOU? Contact Karen Saleen at saleenirisdgarden@comcast.net or by phone at 503-999-1020.

HAVE YOU FORMED YOUR VIRTUAL PAGE ON KAA WEBSITE? Do you know you can sell your art from this page?

It is simple and fun: There is now a page on www.keizerarts.com called Member Gallery. It is a place on which each of us may place photos of our art for others to admire or buy! If you would like your own spot to show your art online, simply send it to Bob Curtis at bcurtis97304@gmail.com. Include a note so that it is put into the right spot on our beautiful (thanks to Bob) website. This is a wonderful chance for us to view others' artwork. And an opportunity for you to have your family and friends view your art. We will also begin selling the art of those of you who would like to do that. Perusing the wonderful art is such fun. Enjoy!

GALLERY K

Our gift shop, Gallery K, is open again with many wonderful pieces of art. For a sampling of items in Gallery K, go to our website. Better yet, visit in person and see our newly painted and carpeted gallery and classroom. Visitors are most welcome!

UPCOMING KAA CLASSES

Exploring Scratchboard Art

Instructor: Laura Singer
Cost: $50 (Includes all materials)
Saturday, October 23, 2021, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Experience levels: All

Learn all about and try your hand at scratchboard in this one-day workshop. Scratchboard is a smooth, white clay board covered in a layer of black India ink. You draw by scratching or scraping away the ink to reveal the white underneath. It's like drawing, but in reverse. Add color with fast-drying scratchboard inks if you wish, then scratch again to reveal highlights. It's easy, and it's very fun! This workshop will cover how to select or prep your own scratchboard surface, what materials are handy to have and where to get them, different techniques for scratching, how to add color with ink, and how to seal your final scratchboard to protect it. All materials are provided by the instructor, including helpful handouts, a small scratchboard for practice, tools for scratching, and one 8 x 8 inch scratchboard for a finished piece. Instructor will have subject reference photos available to choose from, or bring your own inspiration. If you will be attending virtually, sign up early and provide your address so there is time to ship you the materials (free shipping).

We'll break for a half hour around noon, so bring your lunch.

“Things We Hold Onto”

Instructor: Shagufta Mulla

Beginner Poetry Workshop, Cost $50 for two 3-hour sessions, Date TBA, 10 am to 1 pm

Have you ever wanted to try writing free verse poetry but didn't know where to start? Or do you enjoy journal writing or writing short memoir pieces and want to try something new? This workshop is accessible to anyone with the willingness to try and the curiosity to explore their mind in a completely supportive environment. In the first session we will read poems together that demonstrate common literary devices used in poetry like imagery, repetition, line breaks, alliteration, and assonance. I'll include prose poems (which don't have intentional line breaks so they look like a paragraph.) Then we will do writing exercises through guided prompts. There will be opportunities for participants to share what they wrote if they feel comfortable doing so.

For the second session, bring a meaningful object (or photos of it) to the workshop for your own reference and you'll explore writing about it, and yourself, through guided stream of consciousness writing (basically, writing your thoughts as they flow, like journal writing.) You'll take parts of what you wrote and arrange them into a poem. Everyone will have an opportunity to read their poem, or an excerpt, if they wish (not required.) During this session, we'll also spend time giving each other positive feedback and constructive criticism. If you want feedback and help with poems you wrote from the first session, bring them along. I will give clear and simple directions ahead of time on how to give feedback so don't worry if you've never done this before. If you're interested in submitting poems to literary journals, we can go over how that's done and how to write both a cover letter and a writer bio to submit with your work.
