Headline News

KAA MEMBERS,

We need your help. KAA is a dynamic art association and we have SIX additional opportunities to support arts and local artists, but we need YOU!

Current Programming

(Volunteers covered)

- Monthly Art Shows
- Art Classes (50+ per year)
- 1st Tuesday Art Demonstration
- Gallery K Artist Sales
- Open Studio 5 days a week
- Community Outreach Events

Proposed NEW Programs

(Volunteers needed to move forward)

- Keizer Riverwalk Art Fair*
- Keizer Art Book*
- Best of Show Calendar
- Art to Go (art instruction)
- Kids Vacation Art School (VAS)

Most of these volunteer assignments are a ONE TIME commitment of less than 20 hours. The MOST pressing needs are Leadership sub-committee members for the Art Fair and the Art Book projects. Duties of the committee include:

- Creation of an admission form and process
- Develop a time line
- Approval of art/artists to be included
- Creation of the Art Fair Rules
- Select cover and inside covers

Current Sub-committee Members:

ART FAIR

- 1.Linda Chatfield
- 2.Terry Dempsey
- 3.Carol Sims
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.

ART BOOK

1. Julie Thoreson
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.

We will NOT move forward with our two biggest initiatives until we have filled a temporary leadership subcommittee of 7 members to move forward.

CONGRATULATIONS, Evangellin!

ARTIST OF THE MONTH DEBBIE HORNIBROOK

“Debbie Hornibrook is a Northwest watercolor and acrylic artist. Her Mother shared her love of roses with her at a young age, and both her Parents encouraged her creative drive and her connection to animals. Her love of nature was inspired by childhood picnics to mountain streams and woodlands, and a family farm life that included horses, chickens, dogs, and cats as well as a few frogs and gerbils.

Debbie experiences painting as a spiritual practice that restores her Soul and helps her develop connections with other people. She Believes that perhaps our greatest power is in choosing the direction of our mental focus. While painting and creating, she finds herself immersed in the practice of practicing close observation and appreciation and becomes lost in the “flow” of being deeply engaged with her subject, her process, and her friends. She feels restored and at peace after taking time to appreciate the patterns, colors, and connections involved in art-making.

“Every artist dips his brush in his own soul, and paints his own nature into his pictures.”
--Henry Ward Beecher

She hopes her paintings inspire feelings of pleasure and peacefulness, and are a reminder of what can be seen when we slow down and really take in what the Universe has to offer.

Debbie has been juried into the Watercolor Society of Oregon, is a member of the Watercolor Society of Oregon, the Keizer Art Association and the watercolor group: Wild Over Watercolor!”

Don't forget to stop by the Keizer Civic Center (located at 930 Chemawa Rd. NE, Keizer, next door to the old school house building where KAA is housed) during the month of October to see the award winners from our September show, Black White and Grau. It was a great show and the award winners are part of what was submitted. The Keizer Art Association gallery wall is at the north entrance to the Keizer Civic Center and just inside the double doors. You won't be disappointed! This show is brought to you by Terry Dempsey, KAA board member.

OCTOBER FIRST TUESDAY MEET-UP

October First Tuesday with Capitol Woodcarvers: Cheryl Ayres, Tim Flora, Don Fromherz and Bob Curtis. We learned about various forms of carving such as: realistic, relief, caricature and chip with lots of examples of each. The evening was filled with lots of questions, audience interaction and conversation with the carvers. We had our usual announcements, show & tell, door prizes, treats and comradery with talented artists. Thank you to Capitol Woodcarvers and their fabulous and friendly carvers.

NOVEMBER FIRST TUESDAY MEET-UP

November First Tuesday with the return of Basketry and Native American culture with Chrystal Parsons on Tuesday, November 7, 6-8 PM. Chrystal wowed us last year with her knowledge of basketry and the culture of her Suquamish Tribe from the state of Washington. She is an alumni of Chemawa Indian School, earned her teaching degree and returned to the school to teach Native Studies and Indigenous Arts until 2022. She currently resides in Washington and has returned to KAA to enthrall us with her knowledge! If you missed this presentation, last year, now is the time to save-the-date and plan to attend. We will have our usual announcements, show & tell, door prizes, treats and conversation with local artists.

PAINTING WOOD CARVINGS

Instructor: Kelley Stadelman
October 28, 9 am – 4 pm, $50 for 1 class

Do you need help finishing your carvings? Kelley is a skilled painter and carver. In this class she will teach painting techniques that will give your carvings more depth and appeal. "Painting" may mean only mild shading or may involve adding complex color. The techniques to achieve a beautiful, finished project will be taught in this class.

The best way to learn is with brush in hand. Learn shading, highlighting, stroke work and other techniques that will help achieve a beautifully finished carving project. Work sheets will be given out to take home to practice these techniques. Exercises will include shading and highlights which make a flat object look dimensional.
